

Practice exam questions – Poems from Different Cultures and Traditions

Cluster 1

Compare the ways people are presented in Two Scavengers... and one other poem.

Compare the ways an event is described in Blessing and one other poem.

Compare the ways poets reveal feelings in Nothing's Changed and one other poem.

Compare how imagery is used in Vultures and one other poem.

Compare how poets use description to convey their thoughts and emotions in Nothing's Changed and one other poem.

Compare how relationships are shown in Night of the Scorpion and one other poem.

Cluster 2

Compare how identity is presented in from Search for My Tongue and one other poem.

Compare how poets present the importance of belonging to another culture in Presents from My Aunts in Pakistan and one other poem.

Compare how the poets use language to present ideas about identity in from Unrelated Incidents and one other poem.

Compare how imagery is used in Love After Love and one other poem.

Compare how poets use unusual presentation to convey their ideas. Consider from Unrelated Incidents and one other poem.

Compare how the poets convey their ideas about living in two cultures. Consider Hurricane Hits England and one other poem.